

SOUTHAMPTON GETS
REPTILIAN THRILL

Monster Plesiosaurian Makes Its Appearance on One of Town's Main Streets.

TWO COLONISTS BLAMED

County Fair on Friday Will

Novel Publicity Feat.

By a Staff Correspondent of The Sun.
SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 11.—There passed through the main streets of this town this morning a huge plesiosaurian monster which attracted the attention of all passersby. Motorists stopped in their cars to look at it and children ran in wonderment as the uncouth being moved along propelled by some strange power that was not evident.
Its long tail stretched behind on the road for yards and yards, and the head was a large, rounded, rectangular piece of colored paper in place of flesh of the fabled monster. Eager hands picked up these pieces of paper and on Friday afternoon and evening a county street fair would be held beside Agawam Lake for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital.

The reptile had been fashioned by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Davis, who had spent hours in decorating its hide, which was painted to canvas and on it was painted the various designs. Once finished, this hide was stretched over a big motor car, the chauffeur being hidden by it. Mr.
Davis, attired in the costume of a man of the South Sea Islands, was the general effect. Mrs. Davis, who was Miss Agnes Edgar, has passed the greatest part of her life here, and her skill in painting has been shown in the scores of toy animals she has decorated for the Noah's Ark which will be anchored on the borders of the lake during the fair.

Posters of the event made by Mrs. Davis were placed in all the clubs and leading shops.
This morning the "Cannon Ball" train, which takes the business men to town for a few days, carried the hide of the monster, who is to take an active part in the masque and tableaux. They went for last shopping expedition for furbelows that will be shown in the Garden Theatre on Thursday afternoon and Friday evening. As the masque is to begin promptly at 8 o'clock Friday, formal dinner will be served at the hotel. The reason for this is expected there will be sold many ticket suppers at the cafeteria over which Mrs. Alfred E.
Schermhorn will preside.

Invitations were received here today for the marriage of Miss Lesley Frederica Pearson, second daughter of Frederic Pearson, to Henry Ripley, son of Henry Ripley, at the afternoon of August 31 in Trinity Church, Newport.
The reception will follow at Angleside, Mrs. Pearson's villa on the Cliff.
Ripley, who passed Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff, has returned to New York. He is a son of the late Sidney Dillon Ripley. His sister, Mrs. Charles C. Scott, and his sister, the Countess Pierre de Viel Castel, will arrive shortly in New York from Paris for the wedding.

ning to the Schermhorn cottage. During their absence their villa was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Alexander and Miss Mary Alexander, who left early today for Tuxedo Park.

The Cameron cup awarded for prowess in lawn tennis was won by Lawrence McKever Miller, whose score was 6-1, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2. His final opponent was Walton P. Belknap.

and Mrs. Stephen Peabody, have gone
